

OPPORTUNITY NOW REENGAGEMENT HUB @ MONROE HARDING

EMPOWERING YOUNG ADULTS

Who We Are

One of two hubs in the Nashville area providing collaborative, community-based support in education and employment to young adults disengaged from school and work

Who We Serve

Young adults (ages 17-24) victimized by crime and unemployed, underemployed, or out of school

What We Do

Support and assist young adults to become reengaged in the pursuit of their personal educational and vocational goals. We take an individualized coaching approach with our young adults to ensure each:

- Is empowered to build successful connections
- Creates resource networks to meet immediate needs
- Furthers their education and career goals

Our professional staff proactively navigate and connect young adults to resources and services available in the Nashville Area.
