

Monroe Harding's Supportive Housing Program is GROWING!

The need for safe and affordable housing for young adults in Nashville continues to grow. We are happy to share that in August we are expanding to meet this need for 10 additional young adults! We need your help to turn this house into a home! There are many ways to get involved from sponsoring a room, hosting a drive, or buying things directly off our wish lists.

Creating Memories Together

Summer is here and for our foster families and youth it's an opportunity for travel and new experiences. One foster mom shares how part of what she loves most about fostering is the ability to give their foster kids new experiences.

Listening and Learning

Our Reengagement HUB hosted a virtual safe space for young adults to talk about recent events around racial injustice. We were able to hear from a diverse group of young people who want change and are seeking to figure out how they can contribute to the fight against racial injustices.

Fostering Joy Update

We cannot predict how COVID-19 will affect large gatherings in August, so in order to practice social distancing and respect individual comfort levels, we invite you to Gather Small in a Big Way and create the fundraiser of your choice.

Reuniting Families

In June, we celebrate National Reunification Month. The goal of foster care is to help heal families back together. While our foster parents know that they are working towards that goal, it can often be a bittersweet experience letting go.

Progress and Growth

Our staff and board continue to work hard to support our families and young people. The past three months did not slow us down and our connection with and impact on young people since the transition to a virtual work environment increased significantly.
